Plaintiff brought this motion seeking amongst other things Receivership orders against Mt. Cross and MTN RX.
Mr Ahmed Kassim, a principal of MTN sought an adj of the motion with respect to MTN to retain counsel. A. objected.
Over these objections, I granted a two week adj to June 28/18 and stressed to Mr Kassim that he had to more forthwith to retain counsel.

No one attended to oppose the order sought with respect to Mt. Cross.

Based on the record I am satisfied that pursuant to s. 101 of the CTA and s. 243 (1) of the RTA it is appropriate to appoint Mrs. Spiegel as Receiver. Mt. Cross and the Co-venturers have not paid the amounts owing to Maxium. There are obvious and serious difficulties in Mt Cross's business.

I have reviewed the draft order to counsel. Subject to the amendments I am satisfied that it is fair and reasonable and privacy concerns are protected (those of customer/patients).

A sealing order is also appropriate pending further order of the Court.

The order approving activities / other matters shall also go
