Re: Certain indebtedness of Kapila Transport Inc. to Royal Bank of Canada
("RBC")

We are the lawyers for RBC in connection with its lending arrangements with Kapila Transport Inc. ("Kapila") and 2669621 Ontario Inc. ("266").

Kapila is indebted to RBC with respect to certain credit facilities (the "Kapila Credit Facilities") made available by RBC to Kapila, including, without limitation, pursuant to and under the terms of the credit agreement entered into between RBC and Kapila dated December 8, 2023 (as same may have been amended, replaced, restated or supplemented from time to time, the "Kapila Credit Agreement").

266 is also indebted to RBC with respect to certain additional credit facilities (the "266 Credit Facilities" and, together with the Kapila Credit Facilities, the "Credit Facilities"), including, without limitation, those made available by RBC to 266 pursuant to and under the terms of the credit agreement entered into between RBC and 266 dated December 8, 2023 (as same may have been amended, replaced, restated or supplemented from time to time, the "266 Credit Agreement" and, together with the Kapila Credit Agreement, the "Credit Agreements").

Kapila guaranteed 266's obligations to RBC, including, without limitation, those under the 266 Credit Agreement, pursuant to the written guarantee and postponement of claim dated June 7, 2023 (the "266 Guarantee"). The 266 Guarantee is limited to the principal amount of $6,800,000 plus interest and costs from the date of demand.

Certain of the Credit Facilities are repayable on demand, and one of the term facilities under the 266 Credit Agreement has matured.

As of January 21, 2025, the following amounts are due and owing to RBC for principal, interest and fees pursuant to the following specific Credit Facilities (the "Specific Credit Facilities"):

Operating Facility under the Kapila Credit Agreement	CAD $1,677,679.27 USD $151,665.11
VISA Facility under the Kapila Credit Agreement	CAD $6,621.48 USD $9,441.49
Matured Term Facility under the 266 Credit Agreement	CAD $1,186,407.67
	CAD $2,870,708.42 plus USD $161,106.60

On behalf of RBC, and without in any way prejudicing RBC from demanding any other amount owing to it, including, without limitation, in respect of other Credit Facilities extended under the Credit Agreements or any other agreements, we hereby make formal demand for payment of CAD $2,870,708.42 plus USD $161,106.60, plus accruing interest and any and all costs and expenses (including, without limitation, any legal and other professional fees) incurred by RBC to the date of indefeasible repayment of all amounts owed by Kapila and 266 to RBC in respect of the Specific Credit Facilities and Kapila's guarantee thereof (collectively, the "Specified Indebtedness"). Payment is required to be made immediately. Interest continues to accrue on the Specified Indebtedness at the rates established by the Credit Agreements, the 266 Guarantee and any other agreement, as applicable.

The Specified Indebtedness is secured by, inter alia, the general security agreement dated January 11, 2019 granted by Kapila in favour of RBC, which grants RBC, amongst other things, a security interest in any and all of Kapila's property, assets and undertakings (the "Security").

If payment of the Specified Indebtedness is not received immediately, RBC shall take whatever steps it may consider necessary or appropriate to collect and recover the amounts owing to it, including, without limitation: (i) the commencement of civil legal proceedings against Kapila; and/or (ii) the appointment of an interim receiver, receiver and/or receiver and manager of Kapila, in which cases RBC will also be seeking all costs incurred in doing so.

On behalf of RBC, we hereby enclose a Notice of Intention to Enforce Security delivered pursuant to subsection 244(1) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) (the "BIA Notice"), which BIA Notice includes, without limitation, certain of the other Credit Facilities as part of the known indebtedness secured by the Security.

RBC hereby reserves its rights to initiate proceedings within the ten (10) day period set out in the BIA Notice, if circumstances warrant such proceedings.

Please govern yourself accordingly.

Yours truly,

Re: Certain indebtedness of 2669621 Ontario Inc. to Royal Bank of Canada
("RBC")

We are the lawyers for RBC in connection with its lending arrangements with Kapila Transport Inc. ("Kapila") and 2669621 Ontario Inc. ("266").

266 is indebted to RBC with respect to certain credit facilities (the "266 Credit Facilities") made available by RBC to 266, including, without limitation, pursuant to and under the terms of the credit agreement entered into between RBC and 266 dated December 8, 2023 (as same may have been amended, replaced, restated or supplemented from time to time, the "266 Credit Agreement").

Kapila is also indebted to RBC with respect to certain additional credit facilities (the "Kapila Credit Facilities" and, together with the 266 Credit Facilities, the "Credit Facilities"), including, without limitation, those made available by RBC to Kapila pursuant to and under the terms of the credit agreement entered into between RBC and Kapila dated December 8, 2023 (as same may have been amended, replaced, restated or supplemented from time to time, the "Kapila Credit Agreement" and, together with the 266 Credit Agreement, the "Credit Agreements").

266 guaranteed Kapila's obligations to RBC, including, without limitation, those under the Kapila Credit Agreement, pursuant to the written guarantee and postponement of claim dated June 7, 2023 (the "Kapila Guarantee"). The Kapila Guarantee is limited to the principal amount of $3,400,000 plus interest and costs from the date of demand.

Certain of the Credit Facilities are repayable on demand. One or more Event of Default (as defined in the Credit Agreements) has also occurred.

As of January 21, 2025, the following amounts are due and owing to RBC for principal, interest and fees pursuant to the Credit Facilities made available under the Credit Agreements:

Operating Facility under the Kapila Credit Agreement	CAD $1,677,679.27 USD $151,665.11
VISA Facility under the Kapila Credit Agreement	CAD $6,621.48 USD $9,441.49
Term Facility under the 266 Credit Agreement	CAD $1,186,407.67
	CAD $2,870,708.42 plus USD $161,106.60

On behalf of RBC, and without in any way prejudicing RBC from demanding any other amount owing to it, including, without limitation, in respect of other Credit Facilities extended under the Credit Agreements or any other agreements, we hereby make formal demand for payment of CAD $2,870,708.42 plus USD $161,106.60, plus accruing interest and any and all costs and expenses (including, without limitation, any legal and other professional fees) incurred by RBC to the date of indefeasible repayment of all amounts owed by Kapila and 266 to RBC in respect of the Specific Credit Facilities and 266's guarantee thereof (collectively, the "Specified Indebtedness"). Payment is required to be made immediately. Interest continues to accrue on the Specified Indebtedness at the rates established by the Credit Agreements, the Kapila Guarantee and any other agreement, as applicable.

The Specified Indebtedness is secured by, inter alia:

- a) the general security agreement dated January 11, 2019 granted by 266 in favour of RBC, which grants RBC, amongst other things, a security interest in any and all of 266's property, assets and undertakings;
- b) the collateral mortgage in the principal amount of $6,750,000 granted by 266 over the real property municipally known as 313-317 Darrell Drive, Ayr, Ontario (the "Ayr Property"), which was registered on title as Instrument No. WR1164372 on January 17, 2019, and amended by Notice Instrument No. WR1516769 registered on June 28, 2023; and
- c) the collateral mortgage in the principal amount of $5,500,000 granted by 266 over the real property municipally known as 3378 Putnam Road, Putnam, Ontario (the "Putnam Property"), which was registered on title as Instrument No. ER1532356 on June 29, 2023, (collectively, the "Security").

If payment of the Specified Indebtedness is not received immediately, RBC shall take whatever steps it may consider necessary or appropriate to collect and recover the amounts owing to it, including, without limitation: (i) the commencement of civil legal proceedings against 266; and/or (ii) the appointment of an interim receiver, receiver and/or receiver and manager of 266, in which cases RBC will also be seeking all costs incurred in doing so.

On behalf of RBC, we hereby enclose a Notice of Intention to Enforce Security delivered pursuant to subsection 244(1) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) (the "BIA Notice"), which BIA Notice includes, without limitation, the term loan and leasing Credit Facilities as part of the known indebtedness secured by the Security.

RBC hereby reserves its rights to initiate proceedings within the ten (10) day period set out in the BIA Notice, if circumstances warrant such proceedings.

Please govern yourself accordingly.

Yours truly,

Re: Certain indebtedness of Kapila Transport Inc. and 2669621 Ontario Inc. to Royal Bank of Canada ("RBC")

We are the lawyers for RBC in connection with its lending arrangements with Kapila Transport Inc. ("Kapila") and 2669621 Ontario Inc. ("266").

Kapila is indebted to RBC with respect to certain credit facilities (the "Kapila Credit Facilities"), including, without limitation, those made available by RBC to Kapila pursuant to and under the terms of the credit agreement entered into between RBC and Kapila dated December 8, 2023 (as same may have been amended, replaced, restated or supplemented from time to time, the "Kapila Credit Agreement").

KGS Freight Inc. ("KGS") guaranteed Kapila's obligations to RBC, including, without limitation, those under the Kapila Credit Agreement, pursuant to the written guarantee and postponement of claim dated December 17, 2022 (the "Kapila Guarantee"). The Kapila Guarantee is limited to the principal amount of $2,600,000 plus interest and costs from the date of demand.

266 is also indebted to RBC with respect to certain credit facilities (the "266 Credit Facilities" and, together with the Kapila Credit Facilities, the "Credit Facilities"), including, without limitation, those made available by RBC to 266 pursuant to and under the terms of the credit agreement entered into between RBC and 266 dated December 8, 2023 (as same may have been amended, replaced, restated or supplemented from time to time, the "266 Credit Agreement" and, together with the Kapila Credit Agreement, the "Credit Agreements").

KGS also guaranteed 266's obligations to RBC, including, without limitation, those under the 266 Credit Agreement, pursuant to the written guarantee and postponement of claim dated June 7, 2023 (the "266 Guarantee" and, together with the Kapila Guarantee, the "Guarantees"). The 266 Guarantee is limited to the principal amount of $6,800,000 plus interest and costs from the date of demand.

Certain of the Credit Facilities are repayable on demand and one of the term facilities under the 266 Credit Agreement has matured.

As of January 21, 2025, the following amounts are due and owing to RBC for principal, interest and fees pursuant to the following specific Credit Facilities (the “Specific Credit Facilities”):

Operating Facility under the Kapila Credit Agreement	CAD $1,677,679.27 USD $151,665.11
VISA Facility under the Kapila Credit Agreement	CAD $6,621.48 USD $9,441.49
Matured Term Facility under the 266 Credit Agreement	CAD $1,186,407.67
	CAD $2,870,708.42 plus USD $161,106.60

On behalf of RBC, and without in any way prejudicing RBC from demanding any other amount owing to it, including, without limitation, in respect of other Credit Facilities extended under the Credit Agreements or any other agreements, we hereby make formal demand for payment of CAD $2,870,708.42 plus USD $161,106.60, plus accruing interest and any and all costs and expenses (including, without limitation, any legal and other professional fees) incurred by RBC to the date of indefeasible repayment of all amounts owed by Kapila and 266 to RBC in respect of the Specific Credit Facilities and KGS’ guarantees thereof (collectively, the “Specified Indebtedness”). Payment is required to be made immediately. Interest continues to accrue on the Specified Indebtedness at the rates established by the Credit Agreements, the Guarantees and any other agreement, as applicable.

The Specified Indebtedness is secured by, inter alia, the general security agreement dated March 17, 2021 granted by KGS in favour of RBC, which grants RBC, amongst other things, a security interest in any and all of KGS’ property, assets and undertakings (the “Security”).

If payment of the Specified Indebtedness is not received immediately, RBC shall take whatever steps it may consider necessary or appropriate to collect and recover the amounts owing to it, including, without limitation: (i) the commencement of civil legal proceedings against KGS; and/or (ii) the appointment of an interim receiver, receiver and/or receiver and manager of KGS, in which cases RBC will also be seeking all costs incurred in doing so.

On behalf of RBC, we hereby enclose a Notice of Intention to Enforce Security delivered pursuant to subsection 244(1) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) (the “BIA Notice”), which BIA Notice includes, without limitation, certain of the other Credit Facilities as part of the known indebtedness secured by the Security.

RBC hereby reserves its rights to initiate proceedings within the ten (10) day period set out in the BIA Notice, if circumstances warrant such proceedings.

Please govern yourself accordingly.

Re: Certain indebtedness of Kapila Transport Inc. to Royal Bank of Canada
("RBC")

As you know, we are the lawyers for RBC in connection with its lending arrangements with Kapila Transport Inc. ("Kapila") and 2669621 Ontario Inc. ("266").

Reference is made to the demand letter and accompanying BIA Notice dated January 28, 2025, which we issued to you on behalf of RBC (the "First Demand Letter"). Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein have the meanings ascribed to them in the First Demand Letter.

One or more Event of Default (as defined by the Credit Agreements) has occurred and is continuing under the Credit Agreements, including, without limitation, the failure by each of Kapila and 266 to repay the Specific Credit Facilities upon maturity and/or demand thereon, as applicable. As a result, all other amounts owing under the Credit Agreements have also become due and payable.

As of February 19, 2025, and in addition to the amounts owing by Kapila and 266 to RBC under the Specific Credit Facilities, the following amounts are also due and owing by Kapila and 266 to RBC for principal, interest and fees pursuant to the following additional credit facilities under the Credit Agreements (the "Additional Credit Facilities"):

Leasing Facilities under the Kapila Credit Agreement	$417,055.11
Term Facility ending in 0003 under the 266 Credit Agreement	2,454,703.09
Term Facility ending in 0004 under the 266 Credit Agreement	2,963,334.46
	$5,835,092.66

Pursuant to the 266 Guarantee, Kapila guaranteed the obligations of 266 to RBC including, without limitation, in respect of the applicable Additional Credit Facilities under the Credit Agreements.

On behalf of RBC, in addition to the First Demand Letter (in respect of which no payment has been made), and without in any way prejudicing RBC from demanding any other amount owing to it, including, without limitation, in respect of other Credit Facilities extended under the Credit Agreements or any other agreements, we hereby make further formal demand for payment of $5,835,092.66, plus accruing interest and any and all costs and expenses (including, without limitation, any legal and other professional fees) incurred by RBC to the date of indefeasible repayment of all amounts owed by Kapila and 266 to RBC in respect of the Additional Credit Facilities and, where applicable, Kapila's guarantee thereof (collectively, the "Additional Indebtedness"). Payment is required to be made immediately. Interest continues to accrue on the Specific Indebtedness set out in the First Demand Letter plus the further Additional Indebtedness at the rates established by the Credit Agreements, the 266 Guarantee and any other agreement, as applicable.

As more than ten days have now passed since delivery of the BIA Notice, RBC hereby reserves its rights to initiate proceedings immediately, and without any further notice.

Please govern yourself accordingly.

Calvin,

Thank you for your email.

We strongly disagree with the Bank's characterization of both the factual background and our client's conduct. Respectfully, your email selectively references certain events while omitting key context and timeline details that are central to a fair assessment.

To clarify:

- The Bank made its initial demand on January 28, 2025.
- Allegations concerning our client's premises, including any law enforcement activity, predate—or were known to the Bank well before—the forbearance discussions began.
- Notwithstanding these alleged concerns, the Bank chose to actively engage in forbearance negotiations, which continued into May and June 2025.
- The Bank's knowledge of these issues before and during the negotiations seriously undermines any suggestion that proposed forbearance terms justify a sudden shift to enforcement.

Our client has consistently acted in good faith. Most recently, they have proposed an immediate $150,000 paydown, alongside a transparent and supervised asset monetization strategy under the oversight of a financial advisor acceptable to the Bank—steps aimed squarely at reducing the Bank's exposure, maximizing recovery, and restoring the Bank's confidence in the management.

What is concerning is the Bank's decision to pivot toward receivership without affording our client a single opportunity to meet, be heard, or present its plan—despite ongoing communication and open offers of cooperation. The Bank's apparent reliance on without-prejudice settlement discussions to support this decision is procedurally inappropriate and risks undermining the integrity of restructuring negotiations.

Furthermore, we are not aware of any judicial finding linking our client to the activities described in your email. If your client intends to rely on unverified internet comments and screenshots to support its receivership application, we trust the Court will view such material with appropriate caution.

At this stage, I do not have instructions to accept service of the Bank's receivership application.

Should the Bank elect to proceed, it will face a factual record that includes:

- a substantial immediate repayment offer;
- a viable, monitored realization strategy;
- longstanding knowledge of the alleged issues now being raised;
- improper reliance on without-prejudice communications; and
- the Bank's failure to engage in even a single meeting to explore alternatives.

We remain open to dialogue and urge the Bank to pause enforcement steps and consider a supervised, out-of-court realization path. We are available to speak immediately.

Thanks,
Divi

Hi Divi,

Thanks for your email.

To put matters in context, the bank made its first demand for repayment on January 28, 2025. Your clients claimed that they wanted time to complete a refinancing. They claimed that it would take a while for Phase 2 reports to be completed. At some point, your clients stopped operating in the ordinary course of business but continued to negotiate an extended forbearance.

Our client noted a decided lack of activity in the bank accounts of the Borrowers which suggested that business was not continuing in the ordinary course. We did a Google search of your clients' business premises and are attaching a screenshot from Google Maps which suggests that the business is Temporarily closed. Also contained in that screenshot is a public comment regarding an illegal chop shop which was operating from your clients' property.

As you are aware, we first got involved in this matter when the police raided your clients' premises which is collateral supporting repayment of the Bank's loans to your clients. Certain of the Bank's collateral at that location has already been seized from that property as part of a criminal investigation into the stolen vehicle ring which the police allege was operating from that location.

We had tried to negotiate terms of a forbearance arrangement acceptable to the Bank, as reflected by the lengthy email chain below. To be clear, you were not initially involved and did not make the initial representations to the Bank about ongoing operations when we commenced discussing a forbearance arrangement. Our client has lost confidence in your clients and is not prepared to allow it to manage a sales process. The Bank wishes to seek the appointment of an independent third party receiver to conduct a public and transparent process, so we will be moving forward with a receivership application.

You are free to oppose but any creditworthy business should have been able to repay the Bank (or be close to being able repay the bank) by now.

Please confirm if you will accept service of the Bank's application.

Thank you,

Calvin Horsten

Subject: Re: Kapila Transport Inc. & 2669621 Ontario Inc. and RBC

Calvin,

Our client is in a position to deliver an immediate $150,000 paydown and has advanced a credible, good-faith proposal to monetize specific assets exclusively for the purpose of reducing the Bank's exposure.

To ensure full transparency and control, our client is prepared to formalize appropriate undertakings and proceed under the direct oversight of a financial advisor approved by the Bank.

Operations are currently being maintained at a minimum level solely to support the asset monetization process for the benefit of the Bank. If the Bank prefers that operations continue more broadly—or be further curtailed—we are open to alignment.

What is essential now is dialogue. The Bank has not afforded our client even a single opportunity to be heard. That approach is not commercially justifiable and falls short of fundamental principles of procedural fairness and natural justice.

We also take serious issue with any attempt to rely on our proposed forbearance terms—offered solely within the context of without-prejudice, good-faith negotiations—as a basis for initiating enforcement. Doing so would be both improper and prejudicial. These proposals were advanced to facilitate resolution—not to serve as ammunition for a tactical receivership.

We do not have instructions to consent to receivership. Should the Bank proceed, it will face a factual record that includes:

- a substantial immediate paydown;
- a viable and monitored asset realization strategy;
- improper reliance on good-faith restructuring discussions to support a receivership filing;
- open offers of transparency and oversight; and
- the Bank's refusal to engage in a single conversation or explore alternatives.

Proceeding with receivership on this record would raise serious concerns about the Bank's conduct and may expose it to reputational and procedural risk before the Court.

Our client remains committed to working collaboratively to maximize recovery. We urge the Bank to pause all enforcement steps and provide at least one opportunity to present our payment plan.

We are available to speak immediately.

Thanks,
 Divi

Hi Divi,

We have reviewed your comments on the draft forbearance agreement with our client. As it appears that the business no longer operates and is focussing on selling the Bank's collateral, the Bank will be proceeding with its Receivership Application so that a public sales process can be implemented with transparency for all stakeholders.

Please let me know by 11 a.m. tomorrow (Toronto time) if your clients will consent to the Bank's Receivership Application, and furthermore, if you will accept service of the Bank's Application Record on your clients' behalf. If I do not hear from you by then, we will make arrangements to serve your clients directly.

I will also be writing to the Commercial List to seek a 9:30 a.m. scheduling appointment for the hearing of the Receivership Application, and will copy you on that correspondence.

Thanks kindly,

Calvin Horsten

I appreciate your understanding in receiving this email after hours.

Attached are a few light comments and requested changes on the Forbearance Agreement, along with a blackline.

Where helpful, I have included explanations for the proposed changes. Please let me know the Bank's position on it.

Also, would you mind confirming the total Indebtedness to date and whether the pre-authorized VISA payments have been stopped in line with our earlier request?

If not, I would be grateful if you could advise on the current status. I have included a snippet below of the same for your reference.

Hi Divi,

Can we please hear from you on the draft Forbearance Agreement?

In addition, please be advised that the Bank will be putting the accounts on deposit only, as the daily banking no longer appears to be flowing through RBC and the accounts have been in an unauthorized overdraft for more than 30 days.

The Bank is reserving all its rights and remedies under the financing agreements and any applicable law.

Divi, further to our discussion today, our instructions are to continue to discuss a forbearance arrangement but we are instructed to get a Court date if an agreement cannot be reached.

Calvin, can you please arrange a Court date while we determine whether a forbearance arrangement is possible.

Can you also prepare a draft forbearance arrangement for review by myself and the bank.

Salient terms will be three month forbearance with the contemplated paydown and forbearance fee. Consents if RBC is not repaid by end of forbearance period.

Thanks

I wanted to follow up to see if there have been any updates from the Bank regarding our forbearance request below.

Of particular importance is item #3—the request to stop pre-authorized monthly payments. This is critical, as halting these payments will allow us to focus on operational restructuring. When we approached the Bank directly, we were advised that this request must come through you.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Good morning, Sanj:

Further to my previous correspondence, I have now spoken with my client and would like to provide the following updates:

1. $150,000 Pay-down: My client agrees to proceed with the Bank's requested pay-down of $150,000 in consideration of a 6-month forbearance. This would also accompany consent to judgement and receivership at the end of the forbearance period, again in compliance with the Bank's proposed terms.
- 2.
3. Forbearance Fee Adjustment: The client kindly requests that the Bank consider reducing the forbearance fee to $10,000, which would allow financial room for engagement of MNP during the forbearance period. This step is intended to provide greater comfort to the Bank only. MNP has indicated its willingness to proceed, contingent upon the Bank's approval.
- 4.
5. Suspension of PADs: In order to maintain positive cash flow and sustain operations, my client seeks suspension of currently active pre-authorized debits (list attached) with immediate effect. We understand that, as this account falls under Special Loans, your involvement is required.

Please convey the above to the Bank and kindly let me know their advise.

I would also appreciate the opportunity to discuss a few ancillary matters regarding the proposed payment plan.

I will attempt to reach you by phone at 2:30 p.m. today from 647-327-9517. If you are unavailable at that time, please let me know a convenient alternative. Thank you!

Kind regards,
 Divi

Thank you, Sanj.

As previously communicated, we have made multiple efforts to engage the Bank in constructive dialogue and have remained open throughout to a negotiated, commercially reasonable solution.

In the absence of a response, our client was compelled to submit a good-faith proposal aimed at avoiding unnecessary costs, preserving value, and enabling a corporate rescue—ultimately for the Bank's benefit.

Now, proceeding with a receivership application while the below proposal remains under consideration with the Bank would, in our view, be premature and value-destructive.

As you are aware, receivership is an extraordinary remedy, appropriate only where no viable alternative exists and where risks such as deteriorating security, operational instability, loss of confidence in management, or creditor prejudice cannot otherwise be mitigated.

Here, MNP—a professional advisory firm routinely engaged by Canadian financial institutions—is prepared to monitor the debtor's financial position and provide monthly reports to the Bank over a six-month period. Their involvement is exactly intended to provide the type of supervision courts often consider sufficient when evaluating the necessity of a receivership.

Given that MNP is willing to support the Bank, we respectfully question the added cost and disruption of a formal receivership proceeding. It is also worth noting that, should a receivership be successful, the Court would likely appoint a comparable professional firm as a receiver.

Accordingly, we request the following:

1. That any receivership filing be paused pending the Bank's response to the proposal below.
2. Confirmation that, despite our repeated efforts, the Bank has chosen not to engage with the debtor or explore any opportunity for dialogue.
3. Confirmation that the Bank was made aware of MNP's willingness to provide monthly monitoring and reporting of the debtor's affairs, and has nevertheless elected to proceed with a receivership.

That said, we are here to support and collaborate with the Bank and are prepared to provide further details on the anticipated liquidity events to provide additional comfort.

Lest to mention, we continue to be open to discussing mutually acceptable terms.

Kind regards,
 Divi

Hi Sanj:

As an update, I have asked my client to prepare a payment plan in support of a forbearance request to the Bank.

We propose the following terms in consideration of a six-month forbearance:

- $10,000 forbearance fee;
- $120,000 paydown upon execution;
- Consent to judgment and receivership in the event of non-repayment at the end of the forbearance period; and
- MNP to monitor and provide monthly reports to the Bank.

We are also prepared to walk the Bank through the anticipated liquidity events that would support the payment plan.

Please let me know your thoughts or if you would like to discuss further.

Thank you, Sanj!

We are on board to finalize the forbearance agreement.

However, we would appreciate the opportunity to discuss and negotiate certain terms before closing, and I was hoping to speak with you regarding the same.

For instance, the forbearance fee and the pay down, as currently proposed, significantly erodes our working capital at a critical phase.

That said, we would be pleased to table our repayment roadmap and the pipeline of active distressed transactions, which we believe can possibly de-risk the Bank's position and support a commercially reasonable adjustment to the proposed forbearance terms.

Happy to discuss at your convenience.

Best regards,
 Divi

Happy to speak but as you can see from the trail, it was unclear if your client was prepared to make a paydown or pay the forbearance fee.

If that is now the case, we will speak to our client about a forbearance once you confirm the point.

Absent a finalized forbearance, our instructions are to proceed with enforcement at this stage.

Hope you are doing well!

I have been retained by Kapila Transport to support its next steps with the Bank.

My client is prepared to move forward with negotiated forbearance terms and seeks to avoid the risk and cost of enforcement.

In parallel, we are exploring asset-level distressed transactions and strategic exits to preserve enterprise value and support repayment to the Bank.

I would be happy to set up a call later this week or early next to discuss the forbearance terms and potential next steps. Please let me know your availability.

Rupinder, apologies for the delay but I have been very distracted by a higher than normal volume of files.

I think the bank provided terms of forbearance which will need to be met. Your client is looking for time. My client has indicated what it requires which will include:

1. Forbearance fee of $25, 000 on execution of agreement
2. Paydown of indebtedness in the sum of $150,000 on execution of agreement
3. Consents to judgement and receivership if the bank is not repaid at the end of the forbearance period
4. Ongoing payments as per the terms of the credit agreements.

You have provided no alternative to the amounts so it does not appear that we are close to reaching an agreement.

Please let us know if your client is prepared to modify its position.

Absent the foregoing, I suspect our client will instruct us to move forward.

Akhil has been helpful but I have not even had a chance to get back to him so I thought I would respond to both of you.

Mr. Minhas, your client is looking for an indulgence in the form of extended time to repay our client. I have no idea of the financial position of your client or the resources available to your client.

My experience is that a fee and paydown will be required. My suggestion is that your client arrange and injection of capital to allow it to pay a fee and paydown.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Dear Mr. Mitra,

Thank you so much for your response and for taking the time to review this matter with the account manager.

I will discuss the proposed terms of the forbearance agreement with my client and get back to you. In the meantime, I would appreciate it if you could confirm the following:

- Forbearance Fee & Paydown: Would RBC consider adjusting the forbearance fee or the initial paydown amount based on my client's financial position?

I will revert with my client's position after our discussion.

Thanks for your email Rupinder.

I have reviewed with the account manager who has indicated that it is prepared to consider a forbearance arrangement for a period of three months subject to a written forbearance agreement. Terms of the agreement would include:

1. Forbearance fee of $25, 000 on execution of agreement
2. Paydown of indebtedness in the sum of $150,000 on execution of agreement
3. Consents to judgement and receivership if the bank is not repaid at the end of the forbearance period
4. Ongoing payments as per the terms of the credit agreements.

Depending upon the level of progress towards repayment of the indebtedness and the financial position of the borrower at the end of the forbearance agreement, my client would consider an extension of the forbearance period for up to three further months. The bank is unlikely to be agreeable to an extension beyond the aggregate six month forbearance period. The foregoing is subject to internal credit approval at RBC.

Please let us know if your client wishes to pursue the foregoing and I will ask the account manager to seek approval.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Thanks for your email.

I want to make sure that we have made demand on all term debt. I know we demanded on the matured term debt in the numbered company as well as the operating line and Visas in Kapila. All debt is likely going to have to be repaid so that the bank can release its security. I believe that there are two term loans which I believe had not matured as of yet but will be accelerated if this has not already occurred. Calvin will confirm back to you.

In terms of the amount of a paydown it will depend on the additional time your client is seeking. I believe that it will be in both our clients' interests to conclude a payout as soon as possible. You can expect that the bank is not prepared to allow this matter to go out beyond a further month or two assuming you have something tangible to satisfy the bank that the additional time will result in an indefeasible repayment of its facilities. E.g. a commitment letter from a recognized lender which needs some time to close.

Your client should already be seeking a new lender. If it is credit worthy it should be able to complete a refinancing within the 60 days.

Thanks

Dear Mr. Mitra,

Thank you for your email. I will review your response with my client and aim to get back to you within a reasonable period of time.

Meanwhile, as your email states, "The bank has required repayment of certain amounts which are now due and owing," could you please confirm with RBC the exact amount currently due and owing? This will help us in evaluating the next steps effectively.

Additionally, your email mentions, "I would expect there would need to be a material paydown if this is to go beyond 60 days." Could you provide some indication of what RBC would consider an acceptable upfront payment for an extension beyond 60 days, up to a period of 6-8 months? This information would assist us in determining whether such an arrangement is feasible for our client.

Looking forward to your response.

Thank you again for your time!

Mr. Minhas, thank you for your letter.

The bank has required repayment of certain amounts which are now due and owing.

A credit worthy borrower which is acting with diligence and good faith should be able to locate and complete a transaction with another lender within 60 days. It is unclear why you believe that a period beyond 60 days is required. I do not have instructions beyond that time frame. I would expect there would need to be a material paydown if this is to go beyond 60 days. Subject to negotiating a receiving a fully executed forbearance agreement with conditions precedent satisfied, our client would be prepared to agree to forbear from taking enforcement steps. If we are unable to work out an arrangement acceptable, our client will have little option but to proceed to exercise its enforcement remedies.

Terms of any such forbearance arrangement will include a requirement to indefeasibly repay the all amounts on or before the termination of the Forbearance Period, consents to judgement and receivership in the event that the bank is not repaid by the end of the forbearance period.

Please let us know if your client wishes to pursue a forbearance arrangement. We will diarize your response for 9:00 a.m. on February 18, 2025.
