Again, you are e-mailing Chris, and there is a reference to bank info, invoice from Trinidad & Tobago; that is in the subject line? A. Yes. 257. Q. Who isand then further on, who is Ephraim? A. Ephraim was the independent contractor for Trinidad & Tobago, and I was just facilitating information passed on from him and giving it to Chris, so 258. Q. Okay. So, you would deal with Ephraim and get bank information and invoicing information, and then you would take that and you would give it to Mr. Smith?	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 20 10 11 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 2 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 2 2 3 4 5 5 6 7 8 9 10 1 1 2 3 4 5 5 6 7 8 9 10 1 1 2 3 4 5 5 6 7 8 9 10 1 1 2 2 3 4 5 5 8 9 10 1 1 2 2 3 4 5 5 10 1 1 2 2 3 4 5 5 1 2 2 2 3 1 2 2 3 2 2 2 3 2 2 3 2 2 3 2 2 3 2 2 3 2 2 3 2 2 3 2 2 2 3 2 2 2 2 2 2 3 2	 1264. He had told me how to figure out the commission. It is by a certain percentage, which you can look back in your notes. I explained it all then. And then I would let the independent contractor know the details. 1275. Q. The details of what? A. Of how much commission they would be getting. 1276. Q. Right. A. They had to fill out a form to get paid with all their banking information each time. I would pass it along to Chris, Chris would facilitate the wire, Chris would let me know the wire had been paid. I would go back to the independent contractor, letting them know the wire had been sent. 1277. Q. Okay. And if the independent contractor had any questions regarding that 	$ \begin{array}{c ccccccccccccccccccccccccccccccccccc$	 Page 56 S.R. Schlacht - 240 became more and more familiar with the types of questions that these ICs were putting to Banners Broker. A. Well, they asked me the question. So, yes, I was aware of questions. 1283. Q. Okay. And you were aware of the answers to those questions? A. The answers only had to do with money, and that was only dealt with by Chris Smith. 1284. Q. Okay. Tab 32 of the same book is an e-mail from yourself to Chris. A. M'hmm. 1285. Q. And it starts with: "Hello from India" A. M'hmm. 1286. Q. The date of October 2012? A. Yes. 1287. Q. And it says: "Just followed up. I have not received stats from Matt" Is that Matthew Lynn? A. That is Matthew Lynn. 1288. Q. And what stats were you waiting to

Schlacht - 239 I would pass them to Chris. 1278. Q. But if you could address the question yourself, then you would deal with it. It would only be the ones that you couldn't answer that you would pass on to Mr. Smith, correct? A. That is correct, because it was a simple mathematical equation, so it is pretty black and white. 1279. Q. Right. A. But they generally didn't have a question about that. They generally have a question that only Chris Smith could answer. 1280. Q. And if that was the case, Chris Smith would explain the answer to you, and you would, again, deal with the independent contractor? A. He would send me back an e-mail, and I would generally just forward it to the independent contractor. 1281. Q. Okay. But you would look at the e-mail, and you would understand that the answer was responsive to the question? Would you do that at least? A. I would make sure it was responsive to the question, and then I would forward it on. 	24 25 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 5 16 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 5 16 17 10 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 10 10 11 12 13 14 15 10 10 10 11 12 13 14 15 10 10 11 12 13 14 15 10 10 11 12 13 14 15 10 10 11 12 13 14 15 10 11 12 13 14 15 10 10 11 12 13 14 15 10 10 10 11 12 13 14 15 10 10 11 12 12 11 12 13 14 15 10 11 12 13 14 15 10 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 11 12 22 23 24	receive from Matthew? It says: "Subject: Panels/sales credits" So, did that presentation actually take place? A. We talked about this extensively last time. Is there a new question about it? Like, you spent about a half an hour on this subject last time 1408. Q. And there is a couple of ways we can do this. First of all, we are now turning to specific documents. So, when I put questions to you, you have the benefit of knowing A. Okay. 1409. Qwhat information the receiver has. I think it is a fairer way to approach these documents with you, Stephanie. A. A. No. 1421. Q. So, your evidence is that in the entire 15 months that you were at Banners Broker, you only spoke to either affiliates or independent contractors in a seminar or presentation context on this one occasion? A. Yes. I only ever spoke in front of a large group of people in regards to this the one

So, you have an accountjust so I am clear, and if you tell me that it has nothing to do with Banners Broker, I will need to accept that, but you have a bank at the Bank of Cyprus that has nothing to do with Banners Broker? A. No, it was created long after I worked for Stellar Point. 1665. Q. Whyso, tell me why that has nothing to do with Banners Broker or Stellar Point? A. Am I allowed to have bank accounts? It has nothing to do with Banners Broker or Stellar Point. 1666. Q. Did you set that account up, or did

M. Morgan - 26 first contact that your company had with Banners? And when I say Banners, I'm going to include Stellar Point. A. Sure. 118. Q. And I'm also going to include the three primary principals of Banners, which are Chris Smith A. M'hmm. 119. QRajiv Dixit A. Okay. 1120. Qand Kuldip Josun A. Sure. 121. Qand I guess what I want to know from you, is when was the first time that you had a point of contact with one of those A. The first time was with Rajiv Dixit. That would belike to say, end of summer in 2011. 122. Q. Okay, and tell me about that? A. Well, RajivI know Rajiv fromwe attend the same church. I invited him over for lunch with his family, at the time. And it wasn't regarding business. It washis wife was new and didn't seem to know a lot of people, so I said to my wife, "we should invite them over," she looked kind of sad. Our kidswe have a child that's one-year	M. Morgan - 28 point, it evolved into a business relationship? A. Yes. 128. Q. He said, "I have something for you" and then he contacted me and he asked me to meet with Chris and himself and Kuldip. I want to say that was probably in October, maybe, of 2011. It was in the last quarter. They told me what their business was. What the model was. And they told me it had to deal with marketing, and search engine optimization with an MLM component to it. It sounded legitimate and clean. They asked for credit card processing, initially. They told me their international scope, and which countries they're focusing on. They asked if I could get them credit card processing. I said yes. Lyndon was with me at the time, with the company, and heI tasked himwe already had relationships in place where we could get them credit card processing. So really, the rest was for Lyndon to negotiate rates and get the technical jargon taken care of. 129. Q. So the business component of the relationship started around that time? A. Yes. 130. Q. Last quarter of 2011? A. That's correct.
Page 27 M. Morgan - 27 1 older than their kids, at the time. And so I said 2 they could play together. So they came over, we had 3 a barbecue, and Rajiv asked what I did. And I told 4 him. And he said, "hey, we could use your services, 5 I might have something for you." And I said, "all 6 right. So you have my number you can call me when 7 you're ready." And that was it. So that was maybe 8 August of 2011, somewhere in that ball park. 9 123. Q. 124. Q. And, Raj actually had a wife who was 125. Q. It wasn't was summer. 11 124. Q. 125. Q. It wasn't stephanie? 14 A. No, no, no 15 125. Q. 16 A. At the timehe wasn't married 17 legally at the time. But it was another girl named 18 Jennifer. He wasn't married to her, but he has kids 19 with her, and I think they werethey had a 20 spiritual union, so they say. And StephanieI 21 meanshe was his as	Page 29 M. Morgan - 29 1 131. Q. And when did it end? 2 A. Cease? 3 132. Q. Yes. 4 A. Iwant to sayI mean we got 5 commissions from them right up until end of 2013. 6 Sobut in terms of communication with Banners, I 7 would probably say maybe early 2013, mid-2013, I 8 can't say for certain. 9 133. Q. Okay. 10 A. But somewhere in that ballpark. 11 134. Q. Was it around the time that Banners 12 started to have problems with 13 A. Yes, although we didn't go and end 14 the relationship because of that. They just had 15 problems and weren't really using our services in 16 the same way. A lot of our providers pulled back. 17 135. Q. Right. 18 A. And so things sort of tapered off 19 from there, but 20 20 136. Q. Okay. 21 Athey were operational, as far as 22 I know, up until, probably late last yea

Q. No? A. Just becauseI don't think they really had a full understanding of how it worked. Cash payments were the biggest part of their business. And wires were a big part. Cash being, probably the largest, at one point. 238. Q. Just to close off on the payments directly to credit cards, then. Would youwhat records would exist based on that pathway that you just described for me? Like, Aramor presumablyyou'd have some, as the administrator A. Yes, but we don't hold records. We destroy them, because we are not PCI-compliant. They're confidential, and we don't want to hang on to people's records. That's our obligation to our client, is not to store records. If you're TD Bank, you can store records, because you have a fiduciary duty to do that, but that's not our role. 239. Q. So the FCE would have records, presumably the foreign exchange? A. I can't answer that, I don't know.

Prior to 2012, we had been receiving a lot of our information by email, which is obviously, a little bit dangerous, so we had a file manager built that could manage our client's files. 250. Q. When you say "manage". You mean and destroy them? A. That wasn't a key component, but, to safely transport them to us, to safely get the files, so they felt more secure that it wasn't just being emailed. 251. Q. Was theI mean, was the fact that records were not maintained, was that a request of Banners Broker? A. No, it was not. It wasn't. We don't want to keep credit card records on file, just in case I haveyou know, I don't want to use Tricia as an example, or someone in the Philippines, but they're handling these records. They could take a card number, a credit card account number and buy

We had a lot of EFT business for a lot of other companies. And a significant amount of volume that went through, and none were Banners related. So, Banners was really a client in that realm for only a small period of time. But the statements will show a significant amount for the rest of our clients that are off-shore that need to accept payments in Canada. 	Page 64 M. We had a lot of business with 3 Check Gateway at one point, so we did get a fair 4 amount of commissions at one point. 5 306. Q. So when you make the introduction, I 6 take it this is a case for all of these. You make 7 the introduction, and perhaps you had them off to 8 Check Gateway, but thenis the structure set up so 9 that Aramor gets a commission for all the 10 A. It is. And bear in mind, even 11 though there's agreements, it's a high-risk space. 12 There's still a chance that we don't get it, because 13 companies rob each other from time to time. So 14 we've been in that position, as well. We no longer 15 deal with Check Gateway, so I meanif they did 16 have a relationship, it didn't last very long. 17 UseMyServices also provided similar services to 18 Check Gateway for payments, US and otherwise. And 19 that's somewhere where did get commission from. 20 Now, whether it was ACH th

Maybe they want to understand why, or they want to get an understanding as to if there's an explanation. And so, we will arrange to help provide that information for them. So really its to soften the blow for the merchant. We stand in between just to do that. We can sell the merchant better than they can sell themself usually. 430. Q. But you didn'tI take it Aramor didn't have a contract with Beanstream? A. No. 431. Q. Did you have a commission agreement with them? A. We did have a commission agreement with them. 432. Q. If there is something they need to add, if they need a secondary signer, someone's name is tainted, we'll tell them to pull it off, and put someone else's name. Things like that. 428. Q. So once and you helped them with their account application to Beanstream? A. We did, and then we alsowe advise, we don't touch anything. But we'll advise certain things that we know the processor will want to see. Not anything dishonest, but obviously, worded carefully. We help with technical integration to a limited degree, meaning, if there's specific things that they'll want to see from a fraud measurement standpoint, et cetera, on their website, we'll certainly advise on that, as well. So, it's more of a consulting role. 429. Q. So after the introduction, and the establishment of the relationship, you have an administrative troubleshooting role A. No. The role after thatboth parties need to get on a phone call. If something really catastrophic happens, we'll arrange a phone call, but outside of that. Q. In the reseller agreement? A. It wasn't very large, because Beanstream's prices, and their services are very retail-orientated. We're in the high-risk space, we can charge a lot more, typically, so I don't know. We might have made, total, four or five grand. It wasn't very much, over the course of four months. 436. Q. So, on those specific transfers, money was transferred over, as requested. Stellar Point and Banners Broker, we didn't necessarily know the affiliation during this time. We knew we were receiving funds from some of their affiliates, some which were companies, and some which were individuals. And we knew we were sending money back to some of their affiliates, as well as vendors, as well as some of their own companies. We followed whatever instructions were given. 641. Q. So just to follow up on that statement, could you repeatwas there a connection between Stellar Point and Banners Brokers when you were transacting with Stellar Point? A. Not that we knew of at the time. Did we find out that later? Yes, and not necessarily that they were deceiving us in any way. It just wasn't transparent to us at the time that it took place. 642. Q. So who would have been sending you the instructions for the Stellar Point accounts, then? A. For Stellar Point, it would have been Rajiv Dixit, who was the owner of Stellar	M. Morgan - 140 ones did Stellar Point specifically use? Was it prepaid cards, E-cash, credit cards, ACH? Which ones were you using on behalf of Stellar Point? A. I don't know. Everything for us was on behalf of Banners Broker, so I don't know what Stellar Point did individually, or separately. 7 647. Q. Okay, so we're going to go account number million number million and the statements are in a separate 9 book, I believe. It's in the small one as well. 10 MR. COHEN: This one? 11 648. MS. For Stellar Point at times, yes. Later on, but initially it was Rajiv for Stellar Point. 644. Q. Okay, and at what point did that relationship end, with Stellar Point specifically? A. It didn't last very long. They only had a few transfers to us, from what I remember. I can't give you exact dates, but you know, it just kind of appeared as if they had other entities set up for the movement of funds. To me, it was all one and the same, Banners Broker. 645. Q. Was it A. I know that they've saidI think so. I don't know. I know that they since filed bankruptcy. You know, I think they just tried to set things up differently, and I'm assuming some of it was for tax purposes, I'm not sure. That would be something you'd have to ask them as to why. I can only speculate on what's here. 646. Q. So the collection of money on behalf of Stellar Point, of the six different ways that payments were processed. Which one of themwhich	Page 141 M. They offer better 6 rates than the banks, so we used Firma. 7 654. Q. So, for the conversion of Euros to 8 US dollars? 9 A. That's correct. 10 655. Q. Okay, and did Banners Broker utilize 11 that service? 12 A. They did not. They transacted only 13 in USD with us. 14 656. Q. There are alsoa lot of 15 disbursements to account ? 16 A. Is that a US account? 17 A. It's underyou know what, it's not 18 clear. It's called Comm Cash debit? 19 MR. COHEN: Where is it. 20 657. MS. Do you 6 accept it, et cetera, and they put it into our 7 account. So, our other clients were very organized, 8 and they upload their files to us in our file 9 manager. They would document their process, and we 10 know where their funds are, and how to account for 11 that. They had very complex accounting teams on 12 their side, and their money was much more 13 substantial than Banners Broker. They didn't 14 operate a multi-level marketing company where money 15 had to go out right away. 16 699. Q. So how did you, or can we, account 17 for the Banners Broker contributions that went 18 through your accounts? 19 A. Payment gateway is something that connects, oftentimes, a client's website with a bank. And sometimes it is also just used for relaying information that can be easily transmitted to a bank or a third-party payment provider securely. Encrypted, perhaps, when you are dealing with sensitive banking information, such as whatever would be considered PCI-compliant, like Visa or MasterCard. So, it wasn't unusual for us. We had a payment gateway. We used it for very specific payment models for our clients. Banners didn't use it very often, but we had encouraged them to go ahead and upload transactions to that payment gateway. I can't recall if they ever did. 817. Q. So, to thewere the transactions that Banners Broker may A. Yes. 818. Qhave uploaded to the payment gateway, would they be archived on a server? A. Yes. I mean, I can access those. I don't know if there was a code name that my staff used. I don't know, but that is what it is called. They never really did, though, very much. Really, it is other clients that have taken advantage of it. You know, we built it at other clients' request, but Chris generally e-mailed whatever he wanted to get done at some point. 826. Q. And presumably you still have access to the file manager? A. Yes. 827. Q. Okay. So, to finish off this set of undertakings, could you please review the file management system and produce for us any Banners Broker-related information A. Sure. 828. Qincluding payout instructions? And you mentioned that the servers were not in Canada? A. Yes. 822. Q. Just describe that for me. A. That is similar to the payment gateway in a sense that it doesn't communicate with a third party in any way, but it is just archives, files for our clients. So, even if they are looking to apply for other accounts elsewhere, or different things, they can, you know, upload their directors' passports, corporate documents, et cetera, without e-mailing them. To the extent of what Banners Broker might have done on there, it isI believe it is probably just some lists of payments that went out. But I understood that you had several accounts at CIBC, one or two at Bank of Montreal, and perhaps others that were used for Banners Broker purposes. A. Loosely. So, I will explain. The CIBC account was the primary account used to receive funds from their members. It was posted to their website, unbeknownst to me until later on. It was also used to fund, if they needed to send us money. We also had the EFT account, which wasn't used very much. There is a fraction of transaction that went through that, and that was with BMO, and then we also had an account with BMO for Aramor that we

So, this undertaking number 9 is presumably captured in the answers to undertakings number 2 and 3. A. That is correct. 907. Q. Okay. And then finally, undertaking number 10. There was a BMOanother BMO account at First Canadian Place? A. That is correct. 908. Q. That was established in around November 2012, after CIBC shut Aramor's accounts. And you use that a little bit for Banners Broker, correct? A. Yes, we did. I can provide statements for that for November 2012, and possibly December, as well, for what they did. 909. Q. Sure. And we are only interested inwell, what we are interested in is statements for that account that document Banners Broker-related activity, regardless of the time

From a foreign exchangeallowed us to receive funds in euros or any other currency to get exchanged and then send it off elsewhere if it needs toif it needs to be funded somewhere else. I don't know why he sent funds to FIRMA, and I don't knowI would have to go back and check, and I can certainly try to provide some background there as to why those funds were sent. My assumption is that it was used to fund one of his disbursement accounts or credit card funding, as mentioned in the 990. Q. I am just trying to put the twotab 16 and 17 together. And behind the blue sheet in tab 17 is the actual receipt from FIRMA Foreign Exchange. A. Yes. 991. Q. Or two FIRMA Foreign Exchange. A. Correct. 992. Q. What is happening here with this 200,000 euro? What is Aramor's involvement in dealing with Barclays, FIRMA Foreign Exchange and Banners Broker? A. We had a relationship with FIRMA only. Banners Broker, I don't knowWorldWeb Media Inc., we never received funds from them ever before	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	 M. This is them wanting to send the funds in euros or anotheror USD, but it is from Switzerland, and they want usclearly, World WebMedia, we haven't seen that on any of our other statements. So, this is a one-off. I don't know what it was for, and it wasn't sent directly to us. 996. Q. So, the account number on this statement A. Belongs to FIRMA. 997. Q. I am not sure, but they wanted money moved and 993. Q. Who is "they"? A. Either Chris orwhat is his name? Kuldip. This was brought up in our last meeting where you mentioned something about a Swiss bank. I am not sure why they would send funds at the time, but FIRMA has the capability of exchanging and moving the funds. And, so, it is likely that is what they did. 994. Q. And how did the receiptbecause the receipt that you have behind tab 17 that you are sending to Chris A. Yes. 995. Qhow did this come to you? A. Well, we had the a relationship with FIRMA. So, we authorized them to send it. Whateverwe said to them, "If you want funds exchanged, or you need somewhere to send euros, you could send it to FIRMA". Now, we have relationships here, and, you knowlike we had with Cambridge and a few other firms where we could haveif they needed to send us direct funds. They would send it 		Page 65

This is 30? 1069. Q. Yes, tab 30. Just reread it. I think myI am not sure I had a question on this one, other thanI mean, it is a large amount, $400,000 deposit. You say: "It will be accounted for today by Tricia" A. Yes, and I think what happened is, so much money was coming in at the time, and we had other clients funding the same account. We had no idea to know whose was whose at times, although our other clients were very clear as to what was going 	6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 20 21 22	 into Aramor, you are going to be able to A. Yes, if it came to Aramor, absolutely. There isI mean, this is April 24th, 2012. If this came in from them, you will see it on the statement. 1074. Q. Okay, thank you. And just moving on to tab 33, there is a referencethis is an exchange between Lyndon and Allied Wallet? A. Yes. 1075. Q.
